Landlord and Tenant Board

The Residential Tenancies Act, 2006 (RTA), effective January 31, 2007, replaces the Tenant Protection Act, 1997. As part of the Act, the Ontario Rental Housing Tribunal is now known as the Landlord and Tenant Board.

The Landlord and Tenant Board's role is to provide information about the RTA and to resolve disputes between most residential landlords and tenants. Board staff can answer questions about your rights and responsibilities under the law or about a specific application. Information is available by touch-tone phone. Forms used under the RTA are available from the website:

The Landlord and Tenant Board 416-645-8080
www.ltb.gov.on.ca

Investigation of Offences under the RTA

The Investigation and Enforcement Unit responds to complaints from landlords or tenants about alleged offences.

SERVICES FOR TENANTS

The Federation of Metro Tenants Association

The Federation of Metro Tenants' Associations (FMTA) is a non-profit organization that advocates for better rights for tenants. The FMTA is comprised of affiliated tenant associations, as well as individual tenants.

The FMTA runs a Tenant Hotline with trained staff who can explain tenants' rights and obligations, while providing advice on matters ranging from rent increases to maintenance to eviction. Counselling Services are available in 150 languages through a telephone interpreting service. The FMTA also offers printed information.

Please note, the FMTA does not offer legal advice. Should your situation require legal attention, contact a local community legal clinic (next panel).

The Tenant Hotline is funded by the City of Toronto.

Tenant Duty Counsel

When tenants are required to appear before the Landlord and Tenant Board, lawyers and legal workers are available to provide advice and assistance to the tenants on the day of their hearing. This is an on-site service. Should a tenant require in-depth legal services before the hearing date, contact a local community legal clinic (see below).

Tenant Duty Counsel is a program of the Advocacy Centre for Tenants - Ontario and funded by Legal Aid Ontario.
